

Family Naturalist Nature Journal

where:

weather:

time:

date:

What Lives Beneath Our Feet

Invertebrates (and other things) found in Soil and Compost that help to break down organic matter to enrich soil.

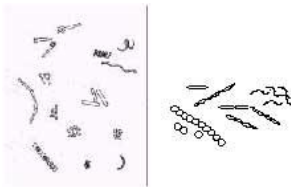

Ant

Fire Ant

Pot Worm

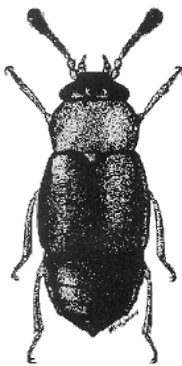

Bacteria

Fruit Fly

Pseudoscorpion

Beetle

Fungi

Redworms

Slugs and Snails

Centipede

Fungus Gnat

Soldier Fly

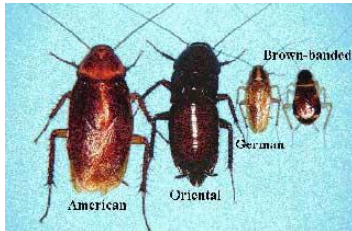

Cluster Fly

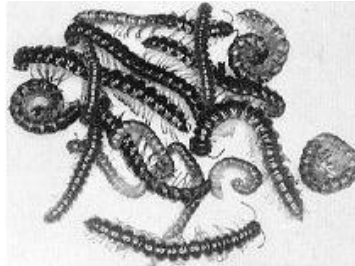

Land Planarian

Sow Bug

Cockroach

Millipede

Spider

Springtail

Earwig

Mite

Worm Birth

Flea Beetle

Mold

What Lives Beneath Our Feet

Invertebrates (and other things) found in Soil and Compost that help to break down organic matter to enrich soil.